

Unlimited Long Distance is a service available for communication between two individuals. This service is not intended for broadcast messaging, monitoring services or connections other than typical dialog. If PGTelco identifies misuse of this service, your service could be subject to termination or a plan change to a per minute rate plan.